Art to Educate and to Inspire

POSTERS AT ECHO-LIT

Educational posters have become a staple in the modern classroom serving as a means to brighten institutional settings while providing a quick lesson or as a perpetual reminder of a rule worth remembering. ECHO-LIT poster topics focus on language arts and guidance. The posters we present promote classic literature, explain basic grammar, inspire character development, and more, using bold styles, bright colors, and quality materials. Our goal is to have ECHO-LIT educational posters become the backdrop for language arts classrooms, guidance offices, libraries, and anywhere learning takes center stage.

FOR TODAY'S STUDENT

At ECHO-LIT, we produce educational posters that are relevant. Today's students easily ignore posters using dated design language. ECHO-LIT uses contemporary, original photography and artwork for its educational posters, and our designers avoid the cheesy and cliche'. We produce work that won't get lost in a world of text messages, video games and glitzy advertisements. We connect with students and consider that connection an important part of the value of ECHO-LIT educational posters.

DOING OUR PART

Most ECHO-LIT branded educational posters are produced using paper that has been certified by the Forestry Stewardship Council (FSC) and contain a minimum of 25 percent recycled material. The remaining 75 percent of the paper content for ECHO-LIT posters comes from responsibly managed forest. To further lessen our environmental impact, we also use only soy-based inks in the production of these posters. We point it out because the quality of the paper and ink is so fine you wouldn't notice that ECHO-LIT is doing its part otherwise.

SEND US YOUR IDEAS

Educators often have wish lists for posters like a grammar rule that's a pet peeve, a literary work they feel is ignored, an inspirational quote they want to share. We would love to hear your ideas. Send an e-mail to customerservice@echo-lit.com. Tell us what you need. Your wish may become our next poster set.
